

DEVIL MASK STUDIO

Press Kit

About Us

Devil Mask Studio is a queer owned and operated Shibari Studio located in Downtown Los Angeles. We strive to create a safe(r) space for play, delight, and agency. Devil Mask Studio is a celebration of the wide variety of genders, sexual expressions, and identities present in our vibrant city.

Fast Facts

- Opened January 04, 2024.
- Located in a former department store in Downtown LA's Historic Core. The building was constructed in 1928.
- Hosted visiting instructors from Italy, France, Japan, the UK, Portland, Seattle, San Francisco, Chicago, and New York.
- Hosts eight monthly community-led rope jams and a shibari life-drawing event.
- Partners with local organizations like 910 WeHo, Pleasure Chest, fwb, Wicked Grounds, and other educators, including Erin Tillman.
- Serves over 350 community members a month.

What people are saying:

"We had no idea what to expect and were just blown away. The space is so warm and inviting and we felt so at ease."

P. & A.
customer review

"At its core, kink is about creating a container for intimacy...It's part of our core human desire."

Nora, C.E.O.
KPCC Interview

"It's not just rope. It's...allowing [rope] to be the gateway to other connections and other ways to have a more whole and authentic relationship."

Andrew, C.O.O.
Shibari Study Interview

DEVIL MASK
STUDIO

Media Contact:

Nora Last, CEO
763-486-3832
nora@devilmaskstudio.com

History of the Space

Logos & Press Images

Media Appearances:

AirTalk Interview [21:45]

KPCC Article

Work in support of Ron Finley at the Hammer | Spectrum News Segment

Chrissy Costanza "Rope" music video - dir. Shelby Parks; rope work designed & executed by Melissa

Hotel Noir fragrance ad - dir. Tyler Stone | FemmeKraft; rope work by Andrew

Shibari Study Podcast Interviews:

Nora

Andrew

Melissa